AMRUTHAVANI

Beloved children,

The one who lifts the veil of Maya, is with you as the all-loving mother and the compassionate Guru. But you should have faith in Her words. You should yearn for release (mukti). You should act according to Her instructions. You must not rest until the goal is realized. Such should be the spirit of an earnest seeker. These Talks which Mother delivers, are not intended for delighting your ears, but for purifying and transforming your life.

*Love and blessings
Rama Devi*

--Bhagavad-Gita-18/22

यत्तु कुत्सनवदेकस्मिन् कार्ये सक्तमहेतुकम् ।
अतत्त्वार्थवदल्पं च तत्तामसमुदाहृतम् ॥ २२ ॥

And that knowledge by which one is attached to one kind of work as the all in all, without knowledge of the truth (knowledge concerning the spirit soul beyond this body) and which is very meager, is said to be in the mode of darkness.

It may naturally seem that when such a Supreme Shakti has come as our Guru in the form of the motherly and radiant Sree Rama Devi, surely some very difficult sadhana must be needed to please and realize Her. Here again Poojya Shree Bhagawan has clarified that the way to please Her is to regard Her as our own and surrender to Her will like carefree children with full faith, true love and complete surrender. When this is done, Mother can show any miracle and make the impossible possible for Her children.

(Please read the article "Bhavana and Bhava "in the next page. It is a wonderful coincidence)

DIVINE GRACE IN CRISIS

--Shri.G.Subramaniam

If one wants to see God, one can see him in Poojya Sree Bhagawan. I want to narrate a couple of instances of how Poojya Sree Bhagawan helped me out of troublesome circumstances. On the 25th my wife and myself were to leave Malaysia for India to meet Poojya Sree Bhagawan. The flight was for 9.30 P.M from Singapore. We had to cross a one kilometer long causeway (which is near their home) to go from Malaysia to Singapore. So we started by car quiet early i.e., at 5 P.M. But there was so much traffic that the causeway was jammed and even at 7.P.M. we were still in Malaysia. The traffic was crawling at snail's pace. We were worried about whether we would miss the flight and began to pray to Poojya Sree Bhagawan. Immediately, I felt that Poojya Sree Bhagawan was speaking to me and telling me to drive the car myself.. So I told the driver to move over and took the wheel myself. By Pooja Sree Bhagawan's grace, I was able to wade through the traffic jam successfully. As the car was speeding towards the airport, I remembered what I had read in the book "Autobiography of a Yogi" by Paramahansa Yogananda. Therein it is mentioned that a lady disciple was on her way to Kolkata to see he Guru. She was delayed and as she stepped on to the platform, the train was chugging out of the station. In desperation she prayed to her Guru to stop the train for this was the last train. If she missed it she would be unable to see her Guru. Miraculously the train halted, the guard issued her a ticket and only after she had boarded the train did it start again.

Remembering this instance, I thought, "If her Guru could stop the train for her, why cannot Poojya Sree Bhagawan stop the flight for me?" We reached the airport at 9.25 P.M. Telling my wife to come with the luggage, I rushed into the airport. To my great astonishment I found a man waiting at the counter for me. He said, "Mr.Subramanyam, we are waiting for you." He then look us to the plane which left as soon as we boarded it. Poojya Sree Bhagawan had heard our prayer and stopped the plane for us.

WORDS OF WISDOM

QUOTES FOR CHILDREN.

---Author unknown

** Always people who are humble and obedient are only respected by others.

** Its not the meal that you eat matters, what is important is that with whom you share it with.

** Its never too late to accept a mistake. You can't run away from a problem/mistake you made.

** Don't blame others. A lot of thinking needs to be done before putting blame on others.

** Best way to have a good neighbour is to be a good neighbour.

** Don't be sad for any loss. Whatever happens, it is for our own good.

** Everybody is different in someway or other. It takes all kinds to make up a family.

** Through hard work and strong determination, one can magically achieve anything.

** Be a good friend, to get a good friend.

** One must never be in the company of bad. Bad people not only destroy themselves, but also others with them.

BHAVANA AND BHAVA

One day during Her stay in Trichur, Divine Mother asked Sri T.N.K.Nayar, who was doing pooja in Mandir: 'Nayar, which Bhavana you keep in mind when you do pooja in the shrine'. Sri Nayar told humbly, 'Mother, I am imagining that I am doing pooja at the Lotus Feet of Parasakthi, where Brahma, Vishnu and Siva prostrates taking away the crown from their heads'. Divine Mother smiled and asked, 'have you seen Brahma, Vishnu or Siva?' 'No, Mother'. Nayar replied. Divine mother continued, 'without seeing such a scene it is not possible to imagine. Without bhavana bhava will not come. So mother tells you a simple bhavana. You imagine that you are returning to your mother after a long separation. At the same time with full of affection mother waits for you with all preparations to receive you. When you enter mandir you imagine such a bhavana. At present it is enough the rest will come automatically'

Sri Nayar with tearful eyes prostrated before Divine Mother. Sri Nayar told one day to me 'I am doing pooja with this bhavana. You also try to do it. Then mind will dance with heavenly bliss.'

PEARLS FROM MOTHER'S LIPS

1. Mother is waiting for your purification so that She may manifest Herself in you and work through you all with thousands of Her hands.

2. Maya is the leela of the Divine Mother. He who realizes the glory of the Mother, for him, the maya disappears.

3. The Lord has immeasurable love for Arjuna. So he milked the cows in the form of Upanishads and fed Arjuna with the nectarean milk of Bhagavad Geetha.

ज्ञानं च तन्मनुष्याणां यत्तेषां मृग पक्षिणाम् ॥ ५० ॥

The Rishi said:-

46-49. Sir, every being has the knowledge of objects perceivable by the senses. And object of sense reaches it in various ways. Some beings are blind by day, and others are blind by night; some beings have equal sight both by day and night. Human beings are certainly endowed with knowledge, but they are not the only beings ( to be so endowed), for cattle, birds, animals and other creatures also cognize (objects of senses).

This saphaha Yajna is devout offering of Mrs. Hema Mukundan

. Alathiyur Pavelikkara Narayanathu Kavu Sudarsana Temple

Alathiyur Pavelikkara Narayanathu Kavu Sudarsana Temple near Tirur in Malappuram dt. of Kerala is one of the rarest holy places as it locates a temple endowed with Sudarsana idol.

Such temples are not frequent. Sudarsana symbolizes the holy presence of Lord Maha Vishnu. In the Puranic anecdote of Santana Gopala we are told that the hero Arjuna had his Vaikuntha darshan through the medium of Sudarsana Chakra. The Chakra installed in this temple is in the form contemplated in this anecdote. Hence any devotee is liable to attain the blissful experience that Arjun attained once.

In the course of Kaliyuga even the most dedicated devotee has no complete escape from the distresses caused by inadvertent performances of sinful deeds. By Lord's grace effects of sins are vanished. By praying Sudarsana and singing Sudarsana's praises the Lord will be pleased to shower His grace on any devotee.

In Sri Narayanathu Kavu, one can make special offerings for attaining prosperity, acquiring knowledge and obtaining off-spring. Homam, the fire offering, like Sudarsanam and Mahasudarsanam are more rewarding if conducted in temples consecrated to Sudarsana Chakra.

Sudarsana can mean either 'that which offers auspicious vision' or 'that which gives happiness to the viewers'. Anyone who visits this temple to do puja will easily learn that both these derivations are befitting. Contact number. 0494-2106765
