AMRUTHAVANI

Beloved children,

In the events of sorrows and sufferings, one's faith in God and the mental tranquility, should not suffer any setback. So also, at the onslaught of passions, one should withdraw into witness-like detachment without identifying oneself with the agitated mental waves. This is the criterion of adhyatmic force in the form of knowledge or devotion.

When enjoyments come as rewards of what is known as the soubhagya prarabdha, one should not remain engrossed in them. One should never forget God, one's own real nature, and the purpose for which one has taken refuge at the Feet of the Guru. One should preserve the flame of aspiration and should fix the mind and love only on God. When devotion increases, the name of God itself will become one's ambrosia, before the sweetness of which any other elixir will become insipid.

Love and blessings

The man of renunciation, pervaded by purity, intelligent and with his doubts cut asunder, does not hate a disagreeable work nor is he attached to an agreeable one.

TEACHINGS OF POOJYA SREE BHAGAWAN

EMPRESS OF UNIVERSE.

We call Mother as the empress of so many universes. Our ancestors were very intelligent. They knew that there are crores of universes. But scientists are discovering the fact that there are other universes and ours is not the only one. Again the scientists believed that the atoms cannot be split but our literature talks of “anurenu anu”, an atom within an atom. It is only recently that scientists discovered that the atom can be split..

DIVINE MOTHER’S MURUKA DARSHAN

It was in 1920, this incident happened..This was narrated by Divine Mother Herself to a devotee. She was only 9 years old at that time. She was visiting Palanimalai with Her parents and relatives. As there was no lodging there at that time, they had to stay in a Brahmin’s house. That Brahmin told them that it was difficult for them to go to the hilltop as the path was very rough. So, leaving women and children, only gents went for climbing the hill. This made little Ramadevi sad. She prayed to Palani Velayudha swami for Darshan. We can hear Divine Mother’s words:-

“I was very sad knowing that it was impossible to climb the hilltop. My father discouraged me saying that the path leading to the temple is forest area and it was very difficult to walk for me as I was a little girl at that time. When I began to pray for Darshan I saw a wonderful scene.I was in front of the beautiful temple of Lord Subramania. It reminded me of Himalayas.I felt that the divine temple premises was filled with Vairagya and Jnana.There inside the temple Bhasma Abhisheka was going on.That divine scene of Bhasmabhisheka kindled the fire of Vairagya in me. Suddenly in a divine glow, I could see the Balabhava of Palani Velayudha swami. With a “Vel”(spear) in His hand, He was walking towards me.That divine scene made my mind to merge in Higher realms and I was not conscious of anything. My father told me that I was standing in that state for a long time. When I opened my eyes, I could see a group of Sannyasis and Sannyasinis with folded palms in front of me.I bowed them in respect and I could see in all different forms of same Subramania Swami.”

GRACIOUS GLANCES OF MOTHER

SMT.JANI BAI S.KAMATH

Exactly at 12 o’clock, in the scorching heat of the midday sun we alighted at Tellicherry railway station. With a heart full of expectation and curiosity, indulging in a variety of imaginations about the Mother, based on the report of numerous experiences of devotees, I reached a house which was a heaven of peace and blessedness. On the doorway, awaiting our arrival was standing Mother of magnetic attraction and divinity. The hospitality which she extended to each one of us, the immeasurable love and meticulous care which she bestowed on us, the never-fading smile of her lovely face, all indicated that she was the very goddess of auspiciousness. Her gracious glances generated eddying currents of devotion.

PEARLS FROM MOTHER’S LIPS

1. When the cooked rice is hot from the oven, it can be shaped into balls. When the same rice is kept open for a long time to the wind, it becomes cold and thereafter it is not possible to shape it into balls. A red hot metal can be given any shape; but once it becomes cold, its flexibility too goes. So too, the character of the children should be moulded in their young age itself

2. When one devotes oneself to truth or God, one is guided by an insight illumined by the grace of God. Such guidance keeps one on the path of righteousness.

I do not know whether the capital (which was) well guarded by my ancestors and recently deserted by me is being guarded righteously or not by my servants of evil conduct. I do not know what enjoyments my chief elephant, heroic and always elated, and now fallen into the hands of my foes, will get.
