AMRUTHAVANI

Beloved children,

: Be not a slave of the mind, become its master. Of course, this involves persistent struggle with the lower forces. Victory is sure to come. Be not hasty, but strive ceaselessly, keeping the flame of yearning steadily glowing. Aspiration should not cool down. There should not be a deviation from nishta. Depression should never set in. With cheer of spirit, wait in patience for the grace of God. Sometimes, under pressure of circumstances, the mind may agitate, but never lose courage. View it as a passing phase. Cling to faith and go forward with courage. To accomplish great things in the world, great are the obstacles to be overcome. The greatest accomplishment is God-vision

Love and blessings

Rama Devi

--Bhagavad-Gita-.18/09

9. Whatever obligatory action is done, O Arjuna, merely because it ought to be done, abandoning attachment and also the desire for reward, that renunciation is regarded as Sattwic!

TEACHINGS OF POOJYA SREE
BHAGAWAN

Truth is Mother Herself. When you inculcate the virtues of love, mercy, austerity and truth, you are in heaven, because your life is smooth and you see Mother wherever you look. This is how you can develop spirituality. Spirituality is in you only. Bring it out..

SPIRITUAL VIBRATIONS

– Smt. Shusheelabai G. Prabhu (1961)

I heard first about Sadguru Sri Rama Devi from an acquaintance and well-wisher. This induced me to meet her. During my visit, I heard her melodious words of wisdom and for a short time I forgot the troublesome samsara. I was greatly enamoured of her personality which attracted me to her again.

Since the following day, I began to attend her bhajans (session of devotional singing). She thereafter initiated me with Rama Nama. I continued meditation and remembrance of Rama Nama from day to day. This continuity gave me a taste for the same. By and by, I began to finish my daily household work as soon as possible and began to sit for meditation and japa under some sort of internal direction.

On hearing the kirtans, replete with love and pathos, I felt an urge for invaluable discipleship. I actually spoke to Mother about it, and while doing so, I inwardly prayed to her to show me the path if she would lift me up. Mother then looked at me with a smile. After a few days I visited her residence. She blessed me with atmopadesh. I was placed on the path of inner spiritual life. I was enlightened. I was on the path of real happiness. Being desirous that others also should partake of the bliss I knew, I told my relations and sisters about the incarnation of the Mother in this world, and persuaded them to take advantage of this golden opportunity of her gracious presence. I took some of them to Mother. All of them derived benefit from her incomparable teachings and subtle spiritual vibrations. (see next page)

WORDS OF WISDOM

1. Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery, today is a gift of God, which is why we call it the present.”
— Bil Keane

2. When one door of happiness closes, another opens; but often we look so long at the closed door that we do not see the one which has been opened for us.”
— Helen Keller

3. Prayer is not asking. It is a longing of the soul. It is daily admission of one's weakness. It is better in prayer to have a heart without words than words without a heart.”
— Mahatma Gandhi

4. God has no religion.”
— Mahatma Gandhi

5. “Hate the sin, love the sinner.”
— Mahatma Gandhi

6. Heard melodies are sweet, but those unheard, are sweeter”
— John Keats,

SPIRITUAL VIBRATIONS(contd..)

After one year, when she came again, she directed that the repetition of the divine name should be practiced in the course of the performance of duty. On hearing this, I started repetition of the name with renewed joy. Following her advice, I am considering my husband as God and have been serving him as such. One morning I was rubbing oil on my husband’s head when I felt vibrations from Mother in an upsurge of devotion to my husband. I realized that one who practiced Mother’s teachings would surely experience her saving grace and unflinching protection.

PEARLS FROM MOTHER’S LIPS

1. The parents write the will, and the children inherit the wealth. If you have no wealth at all, what will can you write! So too, to impart imperishable wealth of adhyatmic knowledge to your children, you must first possess it.

2. Doubt is the stumbling block on the path to God. Devotees, through that marvelous insight called faith, enjoy the bliss of God-vision when God becomes the Avatar on earth. But doubting ones are deprived of this privilege to see God when He stands before them in all splendor.

DEVI MAHATMYAM

सो ऽ चिन्तयत् तदा तत्र ममत्वाकृष्ट मानसः ।
मत्पूर्वैः पालितं पूर्वं मया हीनं पुरं हि तत् ॥ १२ ॥

There then overcome with attachment, he fell into the thought, 'I do not know whether the capital (which was) well guarded by my ancestors and recently deserted by me is being guarded righteously or not by my servants of evil conduct.
