AMRUTHAVANI

Beloved children,

. Live always in constant remembrances of Mother. That is the fort of security wherever you are.----She is always with you and within you as you own deepest Self, guiding you all from within and silently leading you to the goal.—Commune and converse with Her; pray to Her; live in Her; love Her as your own; because you are Her images. She is the only support, lover, friend, companion guide, guardian and Truth. To be identified with Her in Will and Consciousness is the peace that passes all understanding

But action performed with great effort by one seeking to gratify his desires, and which is enacted from a sense of false ego, is called action in the mode of passion.

Just by attending to official and domestic duties, one cannot go far on the spiritual path. Man has to formulate a spiritual life.

Poojya Shree Bhagawan

LOVE AND SERVICE

Spirituality is not confined to those who run away from the house and seek God. Our literature says that one should work, do service, help to improve society and live fuller life. Again the yogas do not advocate escapism.” Deal with social work and enrich yourself for life beyond.” This is what Divine Mother also taught. Our indifference to our neighbors’ sorrows ultimately brings us suffering. A human must help other human beings and this is defined as service by Divine Mother

MARVELOUS ENDURANCE

-Mrs.T.N.K.Nayar

Once when we went to Tellicherry to Divine Mother’s house, it happened that the cook suddenly left for his home and Mother had to do all the work Herself. Such was the marvelous endurance, patience, forbearance and understanding that even the cook took abrupt decision to go home with all serenity and cheerfulness, Mother took over the entire cooking on Herself maintaining the perfect tempo of home life. It was only an opportunity for Her to serve, to sacrifice Her all in the profundity of love. In that lofty peak of spiritual poise, I saw Her bringing fire wood, pots of water and scrubbing the utensils. At that time, there were no modern facilities to lighten the household duties. Mother were ever overburdened with duties. In that frame work of arduous labour, I saw the blessedness, the manifestation of spiritual beauty and never ending bounty of Mother as the Queen of the household. In every act and movement, her work flowed as a celestial art. In a very short time the meal was prepared and served, the most delicious meal may be ever had! ----

---I learned from the devotees of Divine Mother in Tellichery, about the miraculous happening that had occurred on the festival of Ganesh Chaturthy. It was a great festival at Mother’s abode with special pooja and worship, when many were fed sumptuously. An enormous amount of work had to be accomplished and Mother went through the whole work with astonishing energy. In spite of exacting continuous work, there was not even the least trace of fatigue. Her face was ever radiant and cheerful! For that Chaturthy a large number of people assembled unexpectedly for the feast. A sumptuous feast had been prepared for the usual number of guests. Bhagawan (Divine Mother’s consort) became anxious as it was fully apparent that they could never feed all the people assembled. He left everything to Mother. Mother continued to serve cheerfully with imperturbable serenity. Nothing could limit Her, who is illimitable and Her divine munificence at times conquered earthly limitations. That day, all were fed and yet food remained as divine Prasad----.(Excerpts from the book “Mother and Bhagawan”)

TRICHUR MANDIR

MRS.T.N.K.NAYAR

The Mandir in Trichur has a prominent place in the Divine Mother's Mission. The first pratishta of Her vigraha was done here. It was in the year 1953 during the Hindu Religious conference, that my mother donated the land for the Mandir. On Thursday the 24th December, at 10 am was the foundation laying ceremony, and Sri S Varadachari was to lay the foundation stone.

That morning, a vast assemblage had gathered at the site. Mother and Bhagwan were welcomed with the chanting of Ramanam, nadaswaram and vedaghosha. Prostrating before Bhagwan, Mother went into an exalted bhava, rolling on the ground, and taking some dust from the ground placed it on Her head uttering in ringing tones the words "Satyam Dharmam ". The mystic import of the act were not understood but all felt Her benediction for the sacred task ahead. As the ceremony started Mother still in Bhava stood with Her hands raised in blessing. It is on that sacred place that the Mandir and the Vighraha stand now.

PEARLS FROM MOTHER'S LIPS

1. The ignorant search for peace in the external and the evanescent, but discover only the misery. The illumined abide in the Self within and radiate peace all around.

2. That alone is the worship where worshipper becomes one with the worshipped.

3. All powers and faculties and attributes become manifest when by the grace of the Guru

50-58. The knowledge that men have, birds and beasts too have; and what they have men also possess; and the rest (like eating and sleeping) is common to both of them. Look at these birds, which though they possess knowledge, and are themselves distressed by hunger are yet, because of the delusion, engaged in dropping grains into the beaks of their young ones. Human beings are, O tiger among men, attached to their children because of greed for return help. Do you not see this? Even so men are hurled into the whirlpool of attachment, the pit of delusion, through the power of Mahamaya (the Great Illusion), who makes the existence of the world possible.

SMARANA----Swami Sivananda

I am easily attainable by that ever-steadfast Yogi who constantly remembers Me daily, not thinking of another, O Partha! (Bhagavad Gita VIII-14)

Remembrance of the Lord at all times is known as Smarana. It is unbroken memory of the Name and form of the Lord. The mind does not think of any object of the world. It is ever engrossed in the thought of the glorious Lord alone. The mind meditates on what is heard about the glories of the Lord and His virtues and Names, and forgets even the body. It is contented in the remembrance of God, just as Dhruva and Prahlada did. Even Japa is only remembrance of God and comes under this category of Bhakti. Remembrance also includes listening to the stories pertaining to the Lord, talking of Him, teaching others about Him and meditating on His attributes constantly.
