AMRUTHAVANI

Beloved children,

Banish all weakness from your heart. Rise above all petty ideals, shallow notions, ego centric tendencies and selfish motives. Avoid evil finding; learn to adore virtues in all; criticize none; be a stern critic of yourself; refuse to listen to anybody who revile your brothers and sisters in the Mandali. Stand united as a family. Develop spiritual brotherhood and sisterhood in the Mandali and in the perfection of this vision only you can blossom out into the universal expansion of Self.

TEACHINGS OF POOJYA SREE BHAGAWAN

The younger generation is very valuable to our country and faith. The capacity to grasp and reproduce anything that they hear is enormous in children. Nor for nothing in olden days did the people, affluent and poor, educated or illiterate, send their children to a Gurukula at the age of five. The Guru used to teach their students the scriptures and would treat them as His own children. The Gurupatni too would shower Her love and blessings to the kids. We have heard how Sree Rama was in Gurukula, not only learnt the art of administration and warfare from his Guru Sage Vasishtha, but also taught fine arts by Arundhati, the wife of Vasishtha.

Poojya Sree Begawan's Experience

Poojya Sree Bhagawan who was busy with some work in the office of Mission Charitable Hospital, Sakthinagar premises, had a great experience. All on a sudden He felt that his body has become very light, as light as feather, and that he was floating in the air. Simultaneously he had a vision of mystic light, a divine effulgence. Soon the light expanded, and within and without he beheld only light. With a peculiar sensation now overpowering him, he felt that he will lose his body consciousness. A scientist as he was he tried to resist it and in order to be out of the influence of strange light, he hastened towards the mission office. He reasoned within himself that invariably such experiences would come only one was alone and thought that company of other people in the office would ward off strange influence that was on him. But there also he could not remain quiet. This time at the office not only that light continued to engulf him, but he felt palpably mighty pull of unseen power, urging him to go to Matrunilayam. When he went the attendants who Mother described everything to him. Now the mystery of the light and mystic pull became clear to him. He tapped four or five times and the doors were opened for to the relief of all, but Tara Devi was still in a state of deep mystic absorption. Her boy had become still cold and rigid. The hands had still chinmudra on them. That indicated Her superconscious state. Her eyes remained closed. The breathing was slow. Poojya Sree Bhagawan sat near Hershel understood that She was in the realm of transcendence. He softly called Her again and again, whispered the "OM" mantra into Her ears and went on massaging Her hands in order to straighten the folded fingers. It was after a long time that Tara Devi emerged into consciousness. (to be contd..in the next page)

Poojya Sree Begawan's Experience (contd--)

That evening at the time of final Arati, Mother escorted by Her consort, came to Mandir. As soon as the Arati was over, Mother addressing Her children in great prema bhava said, "Children, today but for the Doctor, your Mother would not have come to the body and given you Darshan now. Mother had gone deep, very deep and reached the highest divine realm. Piercing all the intervening realms, call of Doctor reached Mother in that realm." With an enchanting smile on Her lips, and holding Her consort's hand Mother added: "Deva said to Me", "Go, your Pathideva (husband) is calling you. Duty is beckoning you". And soon I descended to this world".

(From the book "Tara Devi")
